

ROW AT KEY WEST BECAUSE OF CRIME

FLORIDA CITY IN THE HANDS OF A MOB.

Negroes Threaten to Riot—Five Hundred Surround the Jail and Court House to Prevent the Lynching of One of Their Number—Troops Sent For by the Sheriff.

Key West, Fla., June 26.—This city was on the verge of a race war Friday night. Several hundred negroes were quartered at Jackson park ready to take part in any outbreak which might come about. One white man was killed and several others wounded.

Sylvester Johnson, a negro, attacked four white women, and, it is charged, assaulted one. The negro was given a preliminary hearing before a justice, and during the proceedings a man named Pendleton arose in court and asked if there were not white men enough present to lynch the prisoner. Intense excitement ensued, but the authorities succeeded in landing their prisoner in jail. Later in the afternoon, while Pendleton was passing down the street, he was attacked by a mob of negroes, but was rescued unharmed. This intensified the feeling, which ran high on both sides, and fears of a riot caused the local militia company to assemble at the armory.

The city was completely at the mercy of a negro mob. It surrounded the jail and court house. In the latter building was the local militia armory. In the excitement the mob began firing, killing William Gardner, white, and wounding several others.

Sheriff Knight wired the governor asking for aid to quell the riot. He requested the governor to order out the local military and asked the secretary of war at Washington to order out the national troops if needed to protect lives and property. Johnson is still in jail. The negroes guarded the jail over 500 strong, all well armed and furious at the attitude of the whites. They swore they would kill every white man on the island before Johnson should be lynched.

The whites are in earnest now, the killing of Gardner having aroused their anger to white heat. Mrs. Atwell, Johnson's victim, is reported to be dying, and this aggravates the situation. The negroes outnumber the whites four to one, and, knowing this, they are very outrageous in their demeanor and flaunt their guns everywhere.

The jury is roundly condemned for not making the punishment hanging. In the country districts there is talk of lynching.

FAVOR HIGH RATES IN TARIFF BILL

AMENDMENTS TO CUT THEM VOTED DOWN.

Senate Advances the Measure—Wool, Silk and Tobacco Schedules Adopted After Strong Opposition—Heavy Duties on Carpets and Silks—Protest From Senator Morgan.

Washington, June 26.—The senate Friday completed the wool schedule, the silk schedule and the tobacco schedule of the tariff bill, and with this accomplished the tariff leaders had the satisfaction of knowing that all the schedules of the bill and the free list had been gone over once. There now remains only to go through the bill a second time, passing on the items passed over. These are very numerous and important, including hides, gloves, coal, tea and beer. After that the internal revenue features of the bill will be all that remains. Progress was rapid Friday, although every paragraph relating to carpets was stubbornly contested. The consideration of the silk schedule led to a strong contest against the proposed duties on silk fabrics. Senators Teller and Mantle joining with the Democrats in opposition. The paragraph was passed by the slender majority of two. The tobacco schedule went through with little friction after the committee had advanced the duty slightly on wrapper and leaf tobacco.

During the debate Mr. Morgan (Ala.) declared that the tariff bill marked the entry of the United States upon a fierce and relentless commercial warfare with the rest of the world. He regretted it, particularly as to Japan, just as she was joining the other commercial nations. Mr. Morgan referred incidentally to Japan's protest against the annexation of Hawaii to the United States, on which subject, he said, he thought Japan had no possible ground of complaint. It was unfortunate at this particular time to have this particular nation feel the ferocity of this tariff bill, although, Mr. Morgan declared, there was not a nation from Mexico to Turkey which did not know that the United States was about to enter upon a war against the commerce of the world. At 5 o'clock the senate held an executive session and then adjourned.

William Bollerman, brakeman, was cut about the face and badly bruised. W. Howard, Marshalltown, a salesman for the Duplex manufacturing company, was injured, but not seriously. About one hour afterward Nos. 62 and 63 ran together near Templeton, completely wrecking both engines and injuring the fireman and a few passengers.

Say Pillsbury Has a Corner.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 26.—On the Minneapolis chamber of commerce there are statements freely made by those in a position to know that C. A. Pillsbury, the big Minneapolis miller, has a corner on more than half the visible supply of wheat in the United States. He will eventually obtain possession of the actual wheat through his heavy purchases of the July option. This statement is to some extent supported by the action of the Chicago July wheat market Friday morning, when in a few moments after opening a straight advance of 1½ cents was recorded in that future with scarcely a trade made. This occurred through traders advancing their bids without obtaining much grain.

THE TRADE REVIEWS DO NOT COINCIDE

R. G. DUN & CO. AND BRAD-STREET'S DISAGREE.

The Former is Optimistic, While Bradstreet's Claims Misrepresentation as to the Improvement in Trade Throughout the Country—Dun Says There Is No Backward Step.

New York, June 26.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "There is no step backward in business, although the season of midsummer quiet is near, improvement continues, gradual and prudently cautious as before, although in many branches evident where no signs of it appeared a few weeks ago. Business men of the highest standing in all parts of the country having gradually perceived that the tide has begun to rise, are regulating their contracts and investments and their plans for the future with a confidence quite unknown to them a short time ago. Great changes before the adjournment of congress are hardly to be expected, but removal of uncertainty is with reason expected to bring into operation buying forces which have been restricted for months. Harvesting of wheat has already begun in some winter wheat states, with surprisingly good results in the central region of California, so that 800,000 tons is now called the minimum from the latter state, and the statisticians of repulse calculate on 60,000,000 bushels of winter wheat beyond the government estimate.

Cotton was lifted an eighth without reason, and has fallen back as much because everything points to a larger crop than has been commonly expected. "Iron and steel products average a small fraction lower in published quotations, but only because private concessions, which are now refused, were by various authorities complacently concealed two weeks ago. "There is encouraging increase in the demand for all textile goods, even for cottons, which have so long been slow, and though it is but moderate, there is nothing of a speculative character in the transactions, and prices are firmly held. "Failures for the week have been 216 in the United States, against 217 last year, and 24 in Canada against 24 last year."

BRADSTREET'S SAYS NO.

Denies That Business Has Had Any Perceptible Increase.

New York, June 26.—Bradstreet's report says: "The persistent misrepresentation of the actual state of trade throughout the country during the last month, in an apparent endeavor to make the prospective improvement in business appear to be its present condition, demands an examination as to the facts, and Bradstreet's, presents condensed results of interviews with representative manufacturers and merchants at more than fifty important commercial and industrial centers east of the Rocky mountains. The demand, except in a few lines, is less pronounced than it was two months ago. There is no material increase in the volume distributed compared with a year ago, and prices for many staples are lower. Many of the larger merchants and manufacturers characterize the business record for the first half of 1897 as a disappointment in contrast with anticipations in December, 1896. On the other hand confidence is widespread in a revival of demand this fall."

CORNELL CREW WINS.

University Race a Decisive Triumph for the Ithacan Crew.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 26.—Cornell won the great inter-university boat race—time, 20:34. Yale was second by three lengths and a half—time, 20:44. Harvard came in third, five lengths astern of Yale—time, 21:00. Cornell's time by miles: First mile, 4:45; second mile, 10:30; third mile, 15:34 3-5; fourth mile, 20:34. The stroke was as follows:

American grit, American methods and American training won the game, as against American grit coupled with English methods and English training. A crew of American college youths trained under an American coach won from two other American college crews in an eight oared contest, the two other crews having studied, the one under an American coach with a mixture of English and American methods and the other discarding all American teachings and methods and importing an English coach in an endeavor to prove a superiority for Henley methods. No such contest ever occurred in this country before. Cornell university has not been able to meet Yale university on the water since 1875, and then, as now, she defeated the boys of the blue.

Briefly, the result of the race is that Cornell asserts her superiority in rowing, method of training and capability over the two larger universities, and she still holds the record for intercollegiate eights of 19 minutes 29 seconds, which she made last year.

THE ANNUAL SERMON HEARD LAST NIGHT

REV. T. E. PETERSON PREACHED AT MILTON.

Dunellen, N. J., Minister Who Graduated From the College Twelve Years Ago, Takes Part in Commencement Exercises—Past Week at Evansville—Other County News.

(THE GAZETTE AGENCY
W. W. CLARKE, Manager,
Milton, Wis., June 26, 1897.)

The annual sermon before the Christian association of Milton college was delivered last evening at the Seventh Day Baptist church, by the Rev. Frank E. Peterson, class of '85 of Dunellen, N. J. His text was "The Glory of Young Men Is Their Strength." After showing what forms the distinctive glory of youth the speaker considered the meaning of the word strength as found in the text, and as applied to those coming now upon the stage of active life. It signifies the power when trying to overcome in battle, and refers to the purpose of one who honestly and gloriously taxes every power of his body, mind and heart in a determined effort to come victorious in an issue set before him. This painting earnestness manifests itself in each of the threefold natures of youth.

First, in their physical forces when gratifying the love of bodily exercise, engaging in outdoor pastimes, and in contests of skill and nerve and muscle.

Second, in their intellectual pursuits and their pure purposes and affections. The resolute worker and the resolute lover are alike fulfilling the great ends for which they were created.

Third, in their spiritual activity, where earnest strength is shown in an ardent desire to come into harmony and communion with God, and gaining the greatest of all prizes, eternal life.

After developing these points, the speaker mentioned some of the destroyers and promoters of strength in young manhood and womanhood. On the one hand was self indulgence and the severing of principle from one's life work and on the other, inspiration born of courage and hope in the final triumph of truth and righteousness.

The music was furnished by the college choir, under the direction of Dr. J. M. Stillman.

GEN. GRANT'S VISIT TO THE BOWER CITY

A. M. THOMPSON WRITES OF EARLY DAY TRIP.

A. Hyatt Smith Intended the Drama to Be a Society Comedy, But it Became a Comedy of Errors Instead—Committee Went Over the Proposed Railway Route.

Hon. A. M. Thompson, formerly one of the editors of the Gazette, but now of Milwaukee gives some interesting historical facts to the Milwaukee Sentinel concerning "General Grant's visit to Janesville." He says:

"This story relates to two distinguished persons—one was a prominent citizen of Wisconsin in early days and the other was one of the three most famous men who have ever appeared in American history. The former was the Hon. A. Hyatt Smith, the other was Gen. Ulysses S. Grant. In this little comedy in one act, Mr. Smith took the leading part. The play was originally intended by Smith to be a society drama, but circumstances quite beyond his control changed it into 'a comedy of errors,' the errors being Smith's.

Fifty years ago Mr. Smith was one of the foremost citizens of Janesville. He was the first attorney-general of the territory of Wisconsin, the first United States attorney after the admission of the state, the first mayor of the city of Janesville, a regent of the state university and he was a member of the first convention that met to frame a state constitution.

Committee on Railway.

"When Mr. Smith was at the zenith of his popularity, a railroad was much talked about from Galena to Janesville, and to further this desirable project the citizens of Galena appointed a committee to go over the proposed route. They were to spy out the land between the two points and consult the farmers and merchants as to getting the right of way and procuring local subscriptions. As Grant had often bought hides for his tannery in Wisconsin and had some knowledge of the country, he was hired to take his team and carry the committee to Janesville.

"Arriving in the latter town the party put up at the old American house, which stood at the corner of Court and Main streets, and was the best hotel in Southern Wisconsin. It was a typical western tavern, with a big barroom in front, where all the guests assembled before meals when the gong sounded, and where all the idlers of the village met at night, to hear the news, exchange jokes, and to gossip about the neighbors. The Galena men created quite an excitement, and they were the lions of the hour. Mr. Smith, being the leading man in the town, naturally took the lead in showing the visitors marked attention, and among other schemes for their enjoyment, he planned a fine banquet at his residence, where the visitors could meet 'the best people.' And there, amid the popping of champagne corks, and the fervid eloquence inspired by the immeasurable possibilities of the Rock River valley, a railroad was projected in a single night, like the growth of Jonah's gourd.

Grant Was Not Bidden.

"To this select banquet the teamster Grant was not bidden. Why should he have been invited? He was dressed in a rough suit, appropriate to his business, and he was regarded by those who had employed him, simply as their servant. 'Coming events' that were soon to shake the great republic to its foundation and test the strength of free institutions to the uttermost, did not 'cast their shadows' in Janesville that night and no one imagined that the quiet man, who was to crush the formidable rebellion recorded in history, was taking care of his horses, and smoking his cigar in silence, while his most fortunate companions were showing their legs under Mr. Smith's mahogany, drinking his wine and munching his walnuts!

"After Grant had become president, Mr. Smith often referred to the visit of the great man to Janesville, and bemoaned the mistake he made in not inviting him to the banquet at his house on that eventful night. 'Grant never forget a friend, nor an act of kindness,' said Mr. Smith, with a twinkle of vain regret in his blue eye, 'and if I had foreseen what was in the future, and made him my guest, I might now be a member of his cabinet or have been appointed to a first class foreign mission.'

"For all sad words of tongue or pen, The saddest are these—It might have been!"

THE OVERFLOW OF LOCAL NEWS.

ABOUT THE DAILY REHASH

Some Facts Concerning the Recorder's Jealous Walls and an Apology.

The Recorder has been filling the air with vain regrets for some time and saying the Gazette was not reliable. The Gazette has no time or space to waste in answering the Recorder's wails. The people are always disgusted when two mercantile firms waste their time in abusing each other and neither firm makes anything by it. Therefore, The Gazette has paid no attention to the Recorder's ravings. Two years ago, The Gazette replied to some of the Recorder's accusations and now asks the indulgence of its readers for the same purpose. We rehash this morning a fair sample of the paper. It had no more and no less news than usual. In this "briefest column" there were forty-nine items. Twenty-seven were advertisements, two of them were for saloon lunches; ten items were notices of society meetings etc., rewritten from other papers.

In the third column was the account of I. N. Norton's suicide. In this article it said that Mrs. Baer stepped out onto the roof of a "one story wing of the building" and looked in at the window of Norton's room—which was in the third story of the building.

Underneath the account of the suicide was a "double head" on the Willey suit. This article was correct, having been copied from The Gazette. Below the account of the Willey case was two wedding notices, which Gazette patrons read last night.

In the fourth column was an article about the lack of hotels at Edgerton. The substance of what was printed in The Gazette on Thursday.

Under the Edgerton article was one about the state fair. It was a clipping from a Milwaukee paper, and was printed in last night's Gazette.

Under the fair article was one concerning Porter Ross, the murderer. It was clipped from last night's Milwaukee Journal.

Under this clipping was Ringling's circus advertisement—which The Gazette also printed last night, if that fact is material.

In the next column was an account of the ball game at Athletic park yesterday afternoon, the names of the players being correct in the Recorder article—having been copied from The Gazette.

Under the base ball article was an account of the Odd Fellows meeting at Evansville. The meeting occurred three days ago. However, if the fact is pertinent, it may be said that The Gazette published it in last night's weekly edition, and in this issue, a more complete account furnished by The Gazette's Evansville correspondent. There was not room for it in last night's Gazette.

Under the Evansville article is another outgrowth of The Gazette article on Dr. Horne's dog. The Gazette printed this article once, and let it go at that. The Recorder has now rehashed it twice.

In the last column is an account of the Unmarried Folks' social at Crystal Springs. In this article the Recorder says the party went up the river in the Enterprise, although Capt. Buchholz sold the Enterprise two years ago.

A few days ago The Recorder spoke of a local quartette that was to sing at Edgerton, but the quartette had no idea of so doing, the alleged members said.

The day before that they had printed a sensational story in which they said a Third ward young man had been charged with a penitentiary offense—when no charge was made, and no legal proceedings commenced.

These are only a few instances of the truth of Recorder stories, and their criticisms of The Gazette are not more truthful. The people would frown on Doe, the grocer, if he kept howling through the papers that Roe, also a grocer, did not give correct weights and swindled his customers, unless Doe could show that his own skirts were clean. Both merchants would be avoided by the people. Newspapers are the same as other merchants. The goods they sell stand upon their merits, and The Gazette is not afraid to put its goods into honest competition, and has never suffered by so doing.

In conclusion, The Gazette asks the pardon of its readers for publishing anything of this nature, but hopes, in view of the fact that space has not been devoted to this purpose since two years ago, that its readers will pardon the imposition.

Jealousy makes people blind, and enables them to justify, in their own minds, the committing of murder.

MISS WILLARD'S PET THEORY

She Believes in Making Public School Children Self Governing.

Miss Francis E. Willard is a believer in self government for public school children. "My theory," she said in a recent interview when asked what forms she would suggest for the New York city schools, "is not to vex and morally injure children by petty rules, but to place their well-being in their own hands. I would have in each school two governing bodies, corresponding to a senate and a house of representatives. It should be the aim of these leading students to do without rules as long as possible and to influence their associates to develop a high sense of honor, personal responsibility and self-respect. I believe that if this innovation could be made it would do more than anything else to educate the students, both morally and mentally, and to fit them for the work and responsibility of a lifetime."

LOCKHART'S ELEPHANTS.

These Wonderful Animal Actors with Ringling Bros' Big Show.

Lockhart's Elephant Comedians, which will be exhibited in connection with Ringling Bros' World's Greatest Shows during the visit of this biggest of all big shows, to Janesville, Friday, July 16, are beyond all question or dispute the most remarkably trained troupe of animal performers in the world. In fact, they are so far ahead of anything in the way of trained elephants ever before presented in the United States as to constitute a distinct and startling departure in this form of arctic entertainment. Lockhart's famous comedy elephants have been the most pronounced sensation of Europe for several seasons, and the amount of money paid by the Ringling Bros. to bring this wonderful troupe of animal comedians to America would be sufficient to equip and indefinitely operate a dozen ordinary big circuses. Their reception in this country has been the most remarkable series of ovations ever accorded a performance given by animal actors. Thousands of people who see them once, go again and again, at every opportunity, seeming never to tire of the marvelous and yet exorcisingly amusing spectacle of these great ponderous elephants going through the varied scenes and presenting the humorously minute details of a complete comedy. There is the sportive elephant dude, out for a hilarious lark, who succumbs to the temptations of the flowing bowl. Being discovered rolling about in a ludicrously intoxicated condition, he is spied by an elephant policeman who pounces down upon him, and industriously usag his club, hustles the offender off to the office of the police magistrate. There he is tried by the magistrate, a ludicrous old elephant, in a bag wig and wearing colossal spectacles, and being adjudged guilty is sentenced to pay a fine and go to jail. Several other amusing comedies are presented by these wonderful elephant actors, together with a complete vaudeville entertainment, embracing fancy dancing, a stately minuet, intricate military evolutions, playing upon musical instruments, and many other feats, as marvelous in their comprehension and so wonderfully accurate in their execution as to excite the admiration and win the enthusiastic plaudits of all beholders. The Lockhart elephant comedians are beyond all comparison the greatest amusement feature ever seen in the United States, and no other show in the world can present anything to even approximately compare with them in absorbing and startling interest.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE

Entered at the postoffice at Janesville, Wis. as second class matter.

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS.

For the accommodation of patrons The Gazette office will be open Saturday evenings hereafter, for the receipt of subscriptions and advertisements and the transaction of other business.

Should Spain object to receiving General Stewart L. Woodford, as United States minister, because he once expressed sympathy for Cuba, as rumor says it may, diplomatic relations may as well be broken off, as it would be too much of a job for the president to find an American with ability to fill the position who has not felt and expressed similar sympathy.

Senator Hanna refused to consent to the reduction of miners' wages in the Pennsylvania coal companies in which he is interested, and is today paying six cents a ton more than some of the competing companies. Such facts to their own talking.

Those editors who are asking how Mr. Bryan makes it pay, are growing entirely too inquisitive. If Mr. Bryan has succeeded in opening up a new occupation for himself, and his employers do not object, nobody else should.

There is nothing surprising about the president having opened negotiations with England for a new arbitration treaty. President McKinley and the republican party believe in the principle of arbitration.

The Japanese don't like the annexation of Hawaii, but they are too wise to butt their heads against a brick wall, by trying to interfere with annexation.

Now that the Ohio republicans have shown themselves to be united, our democratic friends have lost the little hope they had of carrying the legislature.

When Debs has secured a deed on the promised land he will take his colonization party to it in air-ships. The air-ships are likely to be ready before Debs is.

And now some of his enemies are saying that Mr. Wanamaker's bright remarks are prepared by his adviser.

Perhaps the California earthquake was caused by the reverberation of the wrath of Japan over the loss of Hawaii.

THE BOWERY GIRL IS COMING

To Be Seen at Myers Grand-Boxers With the Company.

Harry Williams' enormously successful scenic melodrama, "A Bowery Girl" will be the attraction at the Myers Opera House on Wednesday evening next. "A Bowery Girl" is now in the second season of its success and is said to have cleared for its fortunate owner $60,000. It is a clean melodrama, the scenes of which as its name would indicate are laid in New York famous thoroughfare. In the Bowery scene in the fourth act opportunity is found for the introduction of several boxing exhibitions by famous boxing partners. "Jimmy" Barry, "the little tiger" champion bantam weight of the world and Frank Fitzgerald and Big Bob Armstrong the giant negro champion, and Frank Childs will furnish two four round bouts. "Parson" (Chas. E.) Davies, the noted comic impresario, will introduce the men. Barry is unique among fighters, since he has never yet met with defeat. Armstrong whom the "Parson" is touting for the heavy weight championship stands 6 feet 3 inches in his stocking feet and weighs 200 pounds when trained to condition.

FREQUENT rains and much cloudy weather have been just the thing for the farmers and every one is transplanting. Atmospheric conditions could not be more favorable for the farmers than those existing the past week.

LONGING FOR "SUMMER."

O, come back again sweet summer; Whither hast thou gone? Darkness and gloom sear the heart; No warmth, no sun, no song, Thy soft, balmy breezes, Tender showers, falling dew, Sweet scented violets, We long to welcome you.

Waving grass and golden grain; Berries ripe and cherries red; Sunsets warm and mellow light, Tinting hills and valley's bed. The silver moon with its bright face, Its shadows play on everything, Distant voices of we hear Of happy lovers as they sing.

O, to wander once again Midst sweetest fields of clover; Bending down to pluck the buds, Sprung up, all over. Birds hopping lightly to and fro, So happy and so filled with song, The cow bells tinkle from afar, For all these things our hearts now long. After chilling blasts and snow, Winds blowing, cold rain falling, For summer with its flowers in bloom, All our hearts are calling.

EIBBA DROF.

A BLOODY ROW AT TYRONE.

Man Fractures His Brother's Skull With a Club During a Fight.

A bloody encounter took place between two Brandt brothers near Tyrone, a small place on the Rock-Green county and the Wisconsin-Illinois line. The two men reside on their farm on the state line with their mother. They indulge in frequent quarrels and while thus engaged, Howard, the elder, drove John, the younger, away from the house, but he returned soon.

COMMON SENSE CURE.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Permanently by Curing the Cause.

Remarkable Remedy Which is Bringing Comfort to Thousands of Sufferers.

Probably half the people who see this article suffer from piles. It is one of the commonest diseases and one of the most obstinate. People have it for years and just because it is not immediately fatal they neglect it. Carelessness causes no end of suffering. Carelessness about so simple a thing as piles has often caused death. Hemorrhages occur from no apparent cause and loss of blood causes death. Hemorrhages occur during surgical treatment, often causing death.

Piles are simple in the beginning and easily cured. They can be cured even in the worst stages, without pain or loss of blood, quickly, surely and completely. There is only one remedy that will do it—Pyramid Pile Cure.

It allays the inflammation immediately, heals the irritated surface and with continued treatment reduces the swelling and puts the membranes into good, sound, healthy condition. The cure is thorough and permanent.

Here are some voluntary and unsolicited testimonials that we have lately received: Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of Piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure."

Major Dean, of Columbus, Ohio, says: "I wish to add to the number of certificates as to the benefits derived from Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from Piles for forty years and from itching piles for twenty years and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile Cure has effectively cured me."

Most druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure or will get it for you if you ask them to. It is one dollar per package and is put up only by the Pyramid Drug Co., Albion, Mich.

Wednesday, June 30th.

CHICAGO MARKETS BY WIRE

Robert Lindblom's Letter On the Condition of Crops and Trade.

Chicago, June 26—[Special to Byrd & Law Commission Co.]—It looks as though we have had our corner in July wheat. It was precipitated by the transfer of a lot of wheat from one commission house to another and that at once brought the sellers of July wheat to a stand still and a general scramble to report took place and as usual it was discovered that the short interest was much larger than expected, and existed as we had repeatedly said by virtue of the spreaders who had a sure thing buying September and selling July.

That a corner can be successful is impossible now. The long interest is not concentrated, and a good deal of the short interest will be filled by the delivery of cash wheat. Our market from being the lowest is now the highest in America, and wheat that otherwise would have gone to St. Louis, Toledo, Detroit and Minneapolis, will now find its way to Chicago, and that will make deliveries here very large. As harvest is general under the most favorable conditions, and even poor Kansas will raise a crop of nearly fifty million bushels. If anybody wants to buy any they have to bid up for it because trade has gone out of it, and will stay out of it, but those who have not will find it difficult to do so. The legitimate demand will also be supplied from new winter wheat at lower prices than our old spring.

Corn is weak. It is arriving in bad condition on the other side and exports are dropping off very fast. The whole world is saturated with the idea of impending danger to the crop but it does not now seem as though there was any foundation for it. The crop is making reasonable progress and has recovered from the backward season.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

A New Jersey Woman Expresses Her Gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham for Relief.

"Will you kindly allow me," writes Miss Mary E. Saidt to Mrs. Pinkham, "the pleasure of expressing my gratitude for the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking your Compound? I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration and general debility, caused by falling of the womb. It seemed as though my back would never stop aching. I could not sleep. I had dull headaches. I was weary all the time, and life was a burden to me. I sought the seashore for relief, but all in vain. On my return I resolved to give your medicine a trial. I took two bottles and was cured. I can cheerfully state, if more ladies would only give your medicine a fair trial they would bless the day they saw the advertisement, and there would be happier homes. I mean to do all I can for you in the future. I have you alone to thank for my recovery, for which I am very grateful."—MISS MARY E. SAIDT, Jobstown, N. J.

DEATH THE WINNER OF THE CONTEST

MRS LYMAN DEARBORN IS NO MORE.

Her Demise Occurred This Morning at the Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. A. P. Prichard, on South Main Street—Was a Relative of General Stark, of Revolutionary Fame.

After a long and painful illness Mrs. Lyman Dearborn entered with the quiet of death this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Amos P. Prichard, 215 South Main street. She leaves two children, Mrs. Prichard, with whom she has made her home since the death of her husband in 1888, and a son, Charles H. Dearborn, of Denver, Col.

Abbie Willson was born Sept. 2, 1817 at Lancaster, N. H. She is descended from a notable line of the sturdiest Scotch-Presbyterian ancestry. Her parents were Stephen Willson and Jane McGregor. Stephen Willson was a member of a prominent and influential New Hampshire family. Her great grandfather, the Rev. James McGregor, who came with a colony of Scotch immigrants and founded the village of Londonderry, N. H., was the first minister of the Londonderry parish.

She was a great grandniece of General John Stark of Revolutionary fame. Mrs. Dearborn was one of the family of seventeen children. She was married to Colonel Lyman Dearborn at Concord, N. H., in 1840. In 1855 they removed to Janesville with their two children. She brought with her to her new home the spirit of liberal christianity, having been one of the founders of the Universalist church of Concord, as she became later a prime mover in the organization of All Souls church of this city. In 1870 she removed to La Crosse, Kansas, where she lived until 1888.

Her wide circle of friends will cherish beautiful memories of her generous and earnest spirit.

The funeral will be held from the residence of Mrs. Prichard, 215 South Main street, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

FUNERAL OF H. BARTLETT.

The funeral services of Herrick Bartlett, held at his late residence in Newark, Thursday afternoon, were largely attended by neighbors, Beloit friends and members of the Masonic order, of which the deceased was a brother. Mr. Cresswell, a quartet composed of Dwight, Will, Elizabeth and Carrie Van Aiken singing three beautiful selections, and the remains were escorted to the grave by the Masonic brethren, brothers Jackson, Burige, Smith, Macy, Booth and Ingersoll, of Beloit, acting as pall bearers. At the grave the beautiful Masonic burial services were rendered by Worshipful Master Merriman, the services closing with a prayer by Rev. Mr. Cresswell.

PUNCHED AGED MAN AND IS ARRESTED

ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASE IN MUNICIPAL COURT.

Farmer Bernard Says Laborer Fanning Beat Him While Riding Home From This City—Defendant Says He Was Drunk at the Time, and Expected His Arrest.

With his face bruised and battered aged Joseph Bernard, of the town of Harmony, drove to the city yesterday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of John Fanning, charging him with assault and battery. This morning Chief of Police Hogan drove out to the Frank Roach farm in the town of Harmony and placed Fanning under arrest. The defendant does not deny the charge, but says he must have been intoxicated.

The plaintiff in the case is one of Rock county's well known farmers, and is seventy-seven years of age. On Thursday Mr. Bernard drove to the city to do his trading, and after completing his errands, started for home, driving out Milton avenue. When near the John H. Decker place Mr. Bernard noticed a man standing in the road, and as he approached him the stranger shouted for him to stop and give him a ride.

Mr. Bernard recognized the man as John Fanning, so he stopped his team to let him in.

Fought In the Wagon.

Fanning, who is a powerfully built man, had no sooner seated himself, the plaintiff says, when he turned suddenly about and grabbed his aged companion by the throat. Several times, says Bernard, he was struck on the head and in the left eye and it seemed at times as though Fanning would kill him, he maintains, but in spite of his many years Bernard defended himself as best he could, striking Fanning several times. Fanning finally jumped from the rig and made his escape. Bernard then drove home and medical attention was given him.

When arrested this morning the defendant was setting tobacco on the Frank Roach farm, where he is employed as a laborer. He told Chief Hogan as he read the warrant, that it was just what he had expected, and he was surprised to think that he hadn't been arrested before. The prisoner is well known here, having once resided in Janesville, and has relatives in this city. The case has been set for the municipal court, on next Monday morning.

G. A. R. TO PAY MRS. BRAND

Resolution Is Passed Authorizing Drawing An Order In Her Favor

At a regular meeting of W. H. Sargent Post, No. 29, G. A. R. held last evening in Post hall a resolution was passed authorizing the adjutant to draw an order for $2 payable to Mrs. O. H. Brand, the resolution stating that they deemed the amount allowed by the citizens' Memorial day committee as entirely insufficient for the services rendered. While the amount in itself is of small moment, they wished to show by the drawing of the order their dissatisfaction at the order previously given. Inasmuch as Mrs. Brand has never made any charge for her services on Memorial day and has never sent in any bill, either this year or in the past, the members of the Grand Army felt that the sending her an order for less than $5 showed a greater lack of appreciation than to have allowed her to donate her services, as she was perfectly willing to do. The Grand Army wish it publicly understood that their committee had nothing to do with the former action, and that the resolution of last evening was passed in simple justice to themselves.

DOWN PRODUCES NEW PLANT

Second Ward Florist Has a New Kind of Sweet Pea.

After experimenting for three years with the development of the sweet pea flower, John Downs, the florist who resides on Prospect avenue, now has a variety of sweet pea that is all his own. By a process of development he now has produced a variety of sweet pea that is over twice the size of the regular flower. Its colors are white, pale lemon, dark purple, light blue and orange and it is very fragrant. Mr. Downs has had several offers from florists who wish to know of the process by which the pea was produced but he deems it best to keep that to himself.

The Presbyterian congregation has, during the past few years, showed a steady and healthy growth and it is owing mainly to these facts that a new and more substantial edifice is needed.

WM. JONES IS HELD ON CHARGE MADE

THE CLINTON MAN MUST STAND A TRIAL.

Preliminary Examination Was Held Yesterday and Judge Phelps, of the Municipal Court, Rendered His Decision this Afternoon—Say He Did An Illegal Insurance Business.

On July 12, William Jones of Clinton, will be tried on the charge of writing insurance without due warrant of law. Mr. Jones was examined before Judge Phelps yesterday, and the court this afternoon announced that he would hold the defendant for trial, in bonds of $300.

The defendant in the case was arrested on June 9 by Under Sheriff Wallace Cochran, and immediately gave bail in the sum of $200 for his appearance. For a number of years he has been a resident of Clinton, and was respected and esteemed by all. As a business man his methods were not in the least questioned, and whenever he wrote an insurance policy his word was considered as good as gold.

H. B. Colgrove, the complaining witness in the case is also a resident of Clinton where he has lived for forty-two years—thirty of which he has spent as proprietor of a harness shop. For a number of years Mr. Colgrove carried $600 insurance on his stock in the Home Insurance company of New York City for which company Mr. Jones acted as agent.

Offered a Cut Rate.

Two years ago, it is said, this company decided to raise their rates of insurance so Mr. Jones informed Mr. Colgrove that such was the case and that he would renew his policy of $600 in another company.

This company proved to be the Atlantic of Richmond, Va. On the night of March 15, 1895, one of the most destructive fires in the history of Clinton broke out and before the flames were got under control the Colgrove shop and all its contents was destroyed along with several other buildings. Several days, weeks and months passed and still Mr. Colgrove failed to hear from the company in settlement of the $600 insurance policy. After some months the matter was investigated and it was found that Mr. Jones had unlawfully acted as agent of a company who were not authorized under the state laws to solicit business in the state of Wisconsin. His arrest then followed.

JACKETS AND WRAPS.

The Former Are Short, Silk Lined and Gay In Color.

Most of the lightweight jackets are very short. They are made of thin cloth and lined with silk of a contrasting color, usually light and gay. The jackets themselves are also quite brilliant, being seen in scarlet, all shades of clear and olive green, bright blues and purples, as well as in the standard black, gray, beige and tan. These gay jackets are very pretty worn with a black or mode colored gown. Some are entirely plain, others trimmed with little or much elaboration. Both jackets and capes are more lavishly adorned than usual this season, although capes for ordinary wear are not so bright in tone as jackets of the same grade. Black, grays and mode tints are preferred for the former. Among the trimming used for both are mohair braids, both wide and narrow, cord, galloons with metal threads interwoven and embroidery. Extremely expensive and fanciful jackets are made of very pale cloth, with revers, cuffs and pocket flaps of bright rose or blue cloth embroidered with silver. Others are encrusted with applications of embroidered lace.

LINEN GOWN.

while on still others are boleros and eton shapes, embroidered in silk on the body of the garment. Many of them are open in front, showing a plastron or frilled vest.

There is also a variety of hybrid wraps which partake of the character of both jacket and cape and yet are neither. These are fitted behind and in front or behind only and have wing sleeves or pelerines of plaited material falling over the arms. There is room for much fancy in these wraps, and in black, with lace, jet, embroidery and frillings of mousseline de soie, they are decidedly effective. Applications of white or yellow lace may be employed for them, or metallic embroidery, but they are only suitable for formal wear when thus richly adorned.

The sketch shows a summer costume of ceru linen. The plain skirt has a deep, full flounce around the lower part, headed by a band of wide, white guipure. The bodice has a plaited chemise of ceru linen and a bolero of white guipure over ceru silk. The very high, wrinkled corselet is of red geranium surah. The close sleeves are slightly bouffant at the top and are finished with frills of guipure at the wrists. The collar is of guipure. The hat of geranium red straw is trimmed with red roses and plaited red canvass.

CAPES.

Ruches of Mousseline de Soie—Various Summer Wraps.

Capes are infinitely varied, but they all have one thing in common—that is, mousseline de soie trimming in the form of ruches or plaitings. Around the edge, at the neck and on the shoulder caps, this fluffy, transparent decoration asserts itself voluminously. As these ruchings and plaitings may be bought by the yard, ready made, it is not difficult to rejuvenate a last year's cape by cutting it short and putting on this fashionable adornment according to the newest models. Yokes and motifs of jet are also much worn, and for the capes themselves moire, satin, broche silk and tulle, gauze and mousseline de soie over changeable silk are employed. Some of these capes have long ends embroidered with jet and trimmed with ruffles. Others have a close jacket body or a tight bolero with capes for sleeves made of plaitings or superposed ruffles. There is another style of summer wrap having a sort of blouse of shirred lace with a jet yoke. Two full frills of the lace form a sort of short sleeve, and a ruche of lace composes the collar. A double jabot of cream lace extends down the front to the waist.

The illustration shows a very full cape of beaded black net over black silk. It has an oddly shaped yoke of jet and is cut away and carried into the figure in front to give a bolero effect, the bolero being edged with jet fringe. A full plaiting of black silk gauze with a beading trims the edge of the cape, and two large bows of black satin are placed in front. There is a very full collar of black plaited gauze. The hat of white straw is covered with plaitings of white gauze and is trimmed with green velvet and black plumes fastened by a paste buckle.

CURED

Those Sparagus Kidney Pills which I received of you, are fully up to what you recommended them to be. My wife took the first dose, as she was badly troubled with lame back caused from her kidneys, and next morning she felt better from the effects of them. My neighbor complained of backache all the time. I told him I had some medicine home that would help him. I gave him eight of your Sparagus Kidney Pills and he says he is going to get a box tomorrow. My wife says she will not be without them after this.

A Woman Saved.

A CASE OF INTEREST TO EVERY WOMAN.

Mrs. Henry Younghans Tells a Story of Suffering and How She Was Cured.

From the Evening News, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Henry Younghans, of Detroit, Mich., who resides at 1003 Grand River Avenue, said: "Ever since our last little one came I was an invalid. For years I have had the most painful experience and would have to lie down most of the time. After the last baby was born I was unable to attend to my household. I could hardly stand up and had dizzy spells. I wanted to sleep all the time and was treated by several of the best physicians. I would have the most fearful cramp, for which hot applications were used. I used these hot applications until I blistered myself severely.

"Before our child was born I had been a strong, healthy woman and was scarcely ever sick. After he was born I grew weak and thin, and received scarcely any help from the medicine left by the doctors. They said I was not properly cared for and that the baby was too strong for me. My back seemed to be breaking and I was scarcely ever without a severe headache. Could not tell you how many different prescriptions I have taken, but every doctor had a different plan of treating my case. I wore supports and laid for weeks with my limbs elevated, but without avail. One day my husband suggested that I try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, as he had read several articles in the paper about women who had been helped by them. I was discouraged and thought I must always be an invalid, but said I would try them after I had taken the bottle of medicine I was then using.

"A few days after he brought me in a box and asked me to give them a trial. I started taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People that day and put the other medicine away, thinking it would please him if I tried the pills. Before I had taken one box I felt better. My husband noticed the improvement and bought two more boxes. I kept on using them until I had taken four boxes, and I was entirely cured.

"I keep them in the house now and use them occasionally, as they are a great help to all women. You would not have known me two years ago. What I am to-day is owing to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

(Signed) Mrs. H. YOUNGHANS, Wayne County, Michigan. Mrs. H. Younghans, being duly sworn, states that she has read the above and that it is true in every particular.

ROBERT E. HULL, JR., Notary Public.
